GoGreen Conference Call for Speakers and Sessions to Create Low Carbon, Prosperous, Equitable Economy Fifty Years After the First Earth Day

New partnership with Washington Business Alliance and the Low Carbon Prosperity Institute for 10th annual Sustainability Conference for Business and Public Sector Decision-Makers April 9, 2020

August 23, 2019 – Seattle, WA. The GoGreen Conference is announcing a new partnership with the Washington Business Alliance and the Low Carbon Prosperity Institute to present the 10th anniversary of the GoGreen Conference to be held in Seattle on April 9, 2020. The partnership marks a continued effort to expand the conference's reach in the region and to provide our attending decision-makers with the highest value content possible.

For ten years, the GoGreen Conference has been the ultimate one-day, interactive sustainability learning experience for business and public sector decision-makers in the Pacific Northwest. The event brings together regionally targeted content and recognized leaders from the community to drive a low carbon, prosperous and equitable economy. GoGreen works to build collaborative networks and sustainability best practices throughout the regional business and public sector communities.

"We are thrilled to partner with the Washington Business Alliance and the Low Carbon Prosperity Institute for the GoGreen Conference this year," said Ericka Nelson, President of Social Enterprises and Founder of GoGreen Conference. "This organization embodies the type of impactful business leadership and bi-partisan problem solving that GoGreen strives to bring to our private and public sector decision-makers."

The Washington Business Alliance is a statewide business organization that works to help solve Washington state's most critical issues by working collaboratively to catalyze business leadership, bi-partisan problem-solving, and data-driven strategies. The Washington Business Alliance's Low Carbon Prosperity Institute works to strengthen our economic vitality while reducing greenhouse gas emissions using the methods of entrepreneurial businesses, pursuing aggressive but achievable goals, leverage enabling technologies and tuning based on actual results.
